The Embassy of Colombia in Austria and ICDO invite you to be part of a campaign in support of the environment called “Mani-Fiesta”. Mani-Fiesta is an interactive work of art through which the participants can convey a message for the protection and conservation of nature by virtually using representative works from Pedro Ruiz, one of the most renowned living artists of Colombia. The work of Pedro Ruiz depicts Colombia’s biodiversity. Through this campaign, we want to unite Colombia’s biodiversity and Austria’s sights and people, in order to celebrate our first century of diplomatic relations. Find out more details on the launch and be part of Mani-Fiesta.
