Long Nights of Interculturality

In September, the Embassy participated in the celebration of the “Week of Interculturality” or the “Long Nights of Interculturality in Vienna”, organized by ICDO. On September 12, as part of the opening ceremony, a spectacular parade of typical costumes took place with the participation of 145 typical costumes. Our country was joyfully represented by the active participation of the Colombian community in Vienna.

Additionally, Colombia participated in the art exhibition “Cultural Diversity and Peace”. The art exhibition had the aim of artistically exploring and sharing ideas about peace and diversity. 39 international artists participated, Colombia was represented with two exhibitions:

- Mani-Fiesta from Pedro Ruiz
- Unibirds, the universe of Colombian birds

This exhibition, from MA+CH Studio, a collaboration between Sergio Mantilla and Miguel Chaparro, is a combination of analog and digital printing technologies, an interactive experience that shows Colombia's biodiversity through birds.

Our events

National Colombian Migrant Day

We invite you to commemorate this day together with us, with the screening of the film Jericó, remembering our roots and connecting with the Colombian community in Vienna.

Jericó, written and directed by Catalina Mesa, is an exceptional film and a great part of our cultural heritage. It is a tribute to the traditions of Antioquia, to women and to the unstoppable passage of time.

📍 Place: Consulate of Colombia in Vienna Stadiongasse 6/8, 1010 Wien

🕒 Date and Time: 18:00, october 12th

Exhibition New Photography

Until October 27 you can visit the photography exhibition “Women in Ibero-America, Photographic Perspectives for a New Century” at the Palais Wiener von Welten. Colombia participates with the photographer Ruby Rumié and her project Tejiendo Calle, who, together with 24 other Ibero-American artists, seeks to make a tribute to the women of our region.

- Tejiendo Calle

“Tejiendo calle” was an expression used by grandmothers to refer to the people who permanently walked the streets of Cartagena. Tejiendo Calle is an attempt to rescue many women from invisibility and oblivion who have dedicated valuable years of their lives to street vending, permanently walking through the neighborhoods of the city.

📍 Place: Festsaal, Schwarzenbergplatz, 2, A-1010

🕒 Time: monday to thursday from 09:00 to 13:00 and from 14:00 to 18:00 h.
Friday from 09:00 to 14:30 h

🎫 Free entry

Colombian film festival 'Cultural Resistance to the Armed Conflict'

In October the 2nd Colombian Film Festival takes place in Prague, with the title “Cultural Resistance to the Armed Conflict”. Additionally, a tribute will be paid to the victims of the armed conflict in our country.

The festival takes place on October 2, 12, 25, 26, and 27 at various locations and times.

Colombia at the Street Art Festival Calle Libre in Vienna

The Embassy of Colombia participated and supported “Regeneration”, the 9th Calle Libre Festival. Founded in 2014, Calle Libre is a festival that reunites different contemporary forms of graffiti and other types of street art on designated walls in Vienna. We invite you to take a walk through the street and see the results of more than 20 participating artists who painted their murals at the Nordwestbahnhof station in Vienna. Laura Ortíz, known as @SomaDifusa, realized a mural showing Colombian endemic flowers with human bodies titled Polinizadorxs.

Candlelight Colombian Christmas concert

This year, the best gift is to see each other again. The Embassy of Colombia in Austria invites you to a concert of Colombian and Latin-American carols, where we will celebrate the Day of the Little Candles, a day to give thanks and dream of your heart's wishes. The participating artists are:

- Pablo Rojas: Colombian piano player. Graduated with honors from the University of Antioquia (Medellin). In 2005 he got his master's degree with honors of the University of Music and Performing Arts in Vienna, where he is currently working as a piano professor.
- Julián Henao: Recognized by Viennese press because of his "noble voice" (Wiener Zeitung) and his "explosive and brilliant tenor" (Der Standard), for his successful debut alongside the Star Tenors Plácido Domingo in Macbeth from G.Verdi and Jose Carreras in the opera The Judge by C. Kolonovits, Julian Henao Gonzalez stands out for his repertoire of works by composers such as Rossini, Mozart, Donizetti, Bizet, Debussy, Händel, Salieri, Tchaikovsky and Verdi.
