Anamaría Oramas, new airs for jazz and Colombian music

Ana maría Oramas: flute, bagpipes
Santiago Sandoval: guitar
Byron Cortés: bass
Sebastian Fonseca: percussion

*August 22nd
8:30 p.m.*

*Porgy & Bess, Jazz and Music Club, Riemergasse
11, 1010, Vienna,
Austria*

Anamaría Oramas is one of the most important voices of the jazz scene in Bogotá. Oramas offers an introspective reflection on traditional Colombian music. The gaita, the traverse flute and traditional Latin American percussion instruments dialogue between elements that evoke the party bands of Pelaya, the nostalgic gaita songs or the sung Currulao. It will be presented in the most important jazz bar in Vienna. This activity is part of the Plan de Promoción de Colombia en el Exterior de la Cancillería Colombiana, and is co-organized with MACHI Kulturmanagement.

Salir y Quedarse

Maria Consuelo Vargas de Speiss/Macon

● Die Bühne · Wiener Str. 12 · Purkersdorf

Macon, a Colombian artist, presents her works at the Bühne Purkersdorf. Her art, focused on the search for a better life and future, addresses themes such as female migration, the struggle for dignity and identity. With artistic training in Hamburg and Vienna, Macon has stood out for putting the human being at the center of her creations.

Art exhibition "Working between sense and imbalance".

Manuel Correa

From May 1 to January 19

● Kunsthhaus Graz

info

The exhibition examines the often precarious aspects of artistic and cultural work, questioning the blurring of boundaries between allowing oneself to be exploited and self-realization. With the prominent participation of Colombian director Manuel Correa, it offers a space for new productions and performative art projects, allowing the exhibition to evolve over time.

Exhibition: Women

Aracelly Ramírez Vila

Until July 30th

 OpenWine Yacht Gallery,
Brno, Czech Republic

The exhibition "Women" by Colombian digital illustrator Aracelly Ramirez Vila will be on display at the OpenWine Yacht gallery in Brno. Organized by the Ibero-American Zone, the exhibition will be on view until July 30, 2024.

About her work: "My work is inspired by the female universe. I illustrate dark-skinned women. Women with long necks that breathe delicacy and elegance. Women with closed eyes who block external distractions by focusing on inner thoughts and feelings. Courageous, charming, free, adventurous and dreamy women."

Each face in her illustrations has its own story to tell, likewise, each person will see in them what their own vision shows them. Her inspiration: "comes from the world around me: other artists, my family, friends, trips taken, places traveled and various socio-cultural issues that manage to awaken my creativity."

The thousand faces of the Amazon

Until January 4, 2026

Anthropos Pavilion,
Pisárecká 5, Brno

The exhibition offers a unique look at the cultural and natural diversity of the Amazon region, presented primarily by members of the local ethnic groups themselves. The exhibition includes everyday objects, handicrafts, ritual and ceremonial artifacts, as well as works by contemporary indigenous artists. In addition, biodiversity, ecology and environmental themes are addressed, with representations of Amazonian fauna and interactive elements for children and people with disabilities. This intercultural initiative has the collaboration of various local and international institutions, offering educational programs and activities for different audiences.
