Colombia Cultural News

This month we are thrilled about the premiere of the long-awaited Colombian-inspired Disney film: Encanto. Also, don't forget our invitation to a coffee with María Consuelo Vargas at the International Book Fair in Vienna. In addition, our artists share with us the concert in Vienna: "Tras las huellas de Gabo". Find also recommendations for Colombian series, films and short films. And not to be miss Relatos de Mujeres that narrate their territories.

IN THEATERS FROM NOVEMBER 24TH 2021

"Encanto" tells the story of the Madrigales, a family that lives in the mountains of Colombia, in a magical house. Each member of the family has a unique gift. When Mirabel discovers that the magic of El Encanto is in danger, she becomes the family's last hope.

THE EMBASSY OF COLOMBIA IN VIENNA INVITES YOU TO A COFFEE WITH MACON AT THE BOOK FAIR.

Originally from Cali, Maria Consuelo is a Colombian artist living in Vienna, she has built a recognized artistic career in Europe. The main concept of her works is emigration from the perspective of a woman born in South America.

At the Vienna Book Fair she will present Hispana volume II: a compilation of poems that evoke her own experience of emigration. The work is in Spanish with German translation.

RTVC PLAY - RECOMMENDED OF THE MONTH: CÓRDOVA.

RTVC Play is a free Colombian streaming platform. This month's recommendation is the documentary series Córdoba. It is about the life of the independence hero José María Córdoba. His family life, political thought and military career in search of freedom.

This series was preserved by RTVC's Señal Memoria, they restored the images and sounds in 2019, therefore, it is an old jewel that is in black and white!

WOMEN NARRATE THEIR TERRITORY.

On November 14, we commemorate the Colombian Women's Day and on November 25, the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women.

Which is why this month we take the opportunity to share the digital campaign #RelatosDeMujeres, from the Ministry of Culture, which aims to make visible the stories created by Colombian women in different genres and formats.
